To Whom it May Concern:

Our Daughter Ella is currently 7 months old and she has attended Rima Numan's Little Angels Schoolhouse from the time she was 3 months. It was difficult to trust someone else with the care of our little one, especially at such a young age, but Rima put our minds at ease from the very start with her attention to detail and caring personality.

The environment at Little Angel's Schoolhouse is a nurturing one and we give a lot of credit to Rima and her staff for Ella's physical and emotional development. Rima's detailed daily progress forms are also a great way for us to be a part of Ella's daily experiences, even if we aren't there to see them first hand.

It is never easy to be apart from your children, but if she can't be with us, we couldn't think of a better place for our daughter to spend her days.

Sincerely,
